

Position Statement: Open Government

Democracy in Action supports open, transparent and accessible government because representative democracy works best with an educated, informed and involved citizenry.

DIA supports:

- a Freedom of Information Act for South Dakota;
- open legislative and agency meetings, excluding political party meetings;
- video conferencing to give citizens access to meetings in Pierre from remote locations.